

Fact Sheet

Founded

Spring 2006

Partners

The Governor's Office of Faith-Based and Community Initiatives, the Alabama Department of Homeland Security, local Emergency Management Agencies, & Local Faith-Based & Voluntary Organizations

Overview

A targeted outreach campaign where faith-based organizations are encouraged to include preparedness materials in their bulletins and newsletters, post preparedness information on their websites, and speak to their congregations on the need to prepare. Plans, checklists, and a bulletin insert are made available to participating groups. Materials are adaptable to all faiths.

Outreach

- Bulletins
- Newsletters
- Websites
- Speaking to their congregations

Highlight

In September 2007, the Morgan County Emergency Management Agency and the Morgan County Volunteer Center partnered to print and deliver over 3,000 bulletin inserts to local churches for distribution.