

Fact Sheet

Founded

Winter 2006

Partners

The Governor's Office of Faith-Based and Community Initiatives, the Alabama Department of Homeland Security, & the Alabama Department of Senior Services

Overview

An adaptation of the Be Ready Alabama campaign utilizing materials and outreach events specifically designed to assist seniors, particularly those of low income, to prepare for any type of disaster.

Outreach

Outreach to older Alabamians conducted through events and activities in May.

Highlight

On AmeriCorps day in May 2007, volunteers from around the state came together to assemble 1,000 three-day survival kits to distribute to low income seniors. Governor Riley participated in the kit building and keynoted the event.